

ICE BARBARIANS AND ARCTIC DENIZENS in DARLENE's RGP ART

DARLENE explored several fascinating themes throughout her fantasy-art career. Among DARLENE's more unusual themes are Ice Maidens and Barbarian Warriors from the icy cold reaches of the North. In The 1980 Days of the Dragon Calendar, an Ice Barbarian is mounted upon a large reindeer whose antlers have been reinforced with metal spikes.

The original 12" x 12" acrylic painting of the Ice Barbarian is nestled within a deep blue mat measuring 18" x 20" (a common frame size) and is available at acution.

"The Ice King's Sentinel," an unfinished watercolor/acrylic painting, originally intended as a future panel for The Story of Jasmine, expands the idea of using reindeers as mounts and pack animals. Even though the painting is unfinished, DARLENE sent it to a postcard printer with instructions as to how she wanted the image cropped and printed. Thus, DARLENE published the image on her own and sold them affordably for $1.00 each at her Gen Con booth. DARLENE also used her unfinished original as a part of her booth display. A protective acrylic sheet placed over the art still retains information about the postcards being sold along with a sample postcard and DARLENE's business card. The calligraphic text on back of the postcard reads: "The Ice King's Sentinel ©1981 by Darlene, from the illustrated fantasy-Adventure "The Story of Jasmine" ©1981 All rights reserved. Darlene Lake Geneva, Wisconsin 53147"

The unfinished original painting is available as is a postcard used as a portfolio piece

DARLENE created an illustration of two polar bears accompanying an ice maiden for The 1981 Days of the Dragon Calendar.

DARLENE's portfolio copy of the 1981 Days of the Dragon calendar is a part of her collection.

Within her Jasmine: The Battle for the Mid-Realm collector card game, published in 1982, DARLENE created an entire faction under the capable command of the Ice King of Tarrant, Thorgall whose right hand man is the Ice General. Serving under the Ice General are the Polar Bear General and the Reindeer General, each commanding some impressive and strange arctic animal calvary.

Stray cards from Jasmine: The Battle For The Mid-Realm™ Collector card game, published in 1982, are available as art.

OTHER ICY COLD SCENERIOS

In The Amber Sword of World's End, the author, Michael P. Price had his characters adventuring within a frigid environment of ice and snow. The 2-book set was published by TSR Inc. in 1986 as a part of the One-On-One book series. DARLENE did all 266 interior illustrations and has retained her originals.

Igloo on the Tundra

Attacked by Arctic wolves

Enduring a Snow Storm

Fighting two Arctic wolves

The Base of the Ice Spire

The White Knight

The White Knight's Curse

Charging Woolly Rhino

Attacking the Spire of Ice

Hairy Snow Creature

Sword Caught Within Ice

Ultimate Defeat

Shelter in the Storm

Stuck on an Ice Floe

Cold Night

Snowy Pass

Snow Spider on an Ice Floe

A Land Forlorn

White Pudding

Snowy Pass

Kicking the Ice Spire

Searching the Tundra

Vista from an Ice Cliff

Skull Hut

Trekking in the Snow

Warriors of Ice

Ice Spire in the Distance

DARLENE'S RPG ART AUCTION
Presided by Paul J. Stormberg
THE COLLECTOR'S TROVE

November 2007

EBay Username: the\_collector's\_trove

Those interested in bidding on any of the above art items should e-mail Paul at stormber@cox.net

NOTE: DARLENE RETAINS THE OWNERSHIP OF ALL HER COPYRIGHTS.